

JOINT PHOTOGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE BRIEF

ARMY-NAVY-CIA

INSTALLATION: Possible Communication Facility
LOCATION : Vozrozhdeniya Island, USSR
B. E. NUMBER: None
WAC NUMBER: 246

BRIEF NO.: JB-18-56
DATE: 10 July 1958
LAT.: 45°08'N
LONG.: 59° 17'E

ENCLOSURE: Sketch of Possible Communications Facility on Vozrozhdeniya Island.

REQUIREMENT: Describe and measure possible electronics installation near Mys Kokchukat Administration Area, Vozrozhdeniya Island.

REMARKS:

This brief supplements HTA/JR-3/58, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] dated 28 March 1958, and reports an area, previously unidentified, as a possible electronic site.

This small fenced area is located approximately 300 feet north of Mys Kokchukat Administration Area (see Plate 5, JR-3-58). It is 50 feet square and contains a small shed, 5 feet square, and two stick masts [REDACTED] Just outside the east fence are two additional stick masts, [REDACTED]

These masts indicate the possible presence of an antenna array. Previous study of the administration area has not revealed a satisfactory explanation for the communications system between Vozrozhdeniya Island and Aralsk. This facility may be a part of such a system.
